"The famous ABC BOOK, designed and cut on wood, by C. B. Falls . . . has made an instant appeal to very little children . . . who knew nothing whatever about the alphabet . . . because of its clear and bright and pure color."

May Lamberton Baker
in FIRST ADVENTURES IN READING

"With its colorful woodcuts of superbly drawn animals and its beautifully shaded alphabet, it remains one of the distinguished books for children produced in this country."

Doro V. Smith
in FIFTY YEARS OF CHILDREN'S BOOKS

"The artist has stressed beauty in a book that names letters and animals. Distinct, brightly colored pictures fill each page where figures of the creatures stand clearly outlined, recognizable, and ablaze with color. This alphabet book traces forms with grace of line that manages to put on a page something more than just the creatures keyed to the lovely letter forms of the alphabet. Colorful woodcuts vividly display the craftsmanship found in each page of this picture book published more than four decades ago."

Dr. Constantine Georgion,
New York University, Professor of Children's Literature
